

Preventing Violent Extremism Seminar

Tuesday 28th April 2009,
Centre For Professional Development, Rosary Road, Oldham
5:00pm- 7:30pm

PeaceMaker has been supporting Oldham Council to successfully involve Muslim women and Oldham's young people in developing an understanding of the Governments Preventing Violent Extremism. These women and young people have developed a range of resources and gained valuable insight into how this agenda affects Oldham's communities.

The purpose of this seminar is to share their learning with others working in and for communities to share the findings and discuss how these should shape work going forward in neighbourhoods across the town.

This Seminar is suitable for:

- Young people Yr 10 onwards
- Community leaders
- Councillors
- Teachers
- Parents
- Religious Leaders
- Police Officers
- Youth workers
- Organisations working with young people
